

I am writing to complain about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air a piece of right-wing propaganda two weeks before the US presidential election. I am appalled that a media giant would try to use THE PUBLIC AIRWAVES that I and every other American own in a blatant partisan attempt to influence a close election. This is the kind of stuff I would expect to see in the old Soviet Union or in a Banana Republic, not in the USA. If the media decide it's their job to decide who runs the country, then state-controlled media will not be far behind, and American Democracy goes out the window.

Regardless of the outcome on November 2, the FCC needs to pull Sinclair's license if they go through with this plan. Sinclair is proving itself to be a poor trustee of the public trust.
